

At Home.
A few cases of small pox have appeared in Southern Utah.
Gen. Cowan and his Indian delegation have reached Washington.

The New York Senate has adjourned until November 20th, not 10th as erroneously reported.

The efforts of the coal oil men to decrease production have failed.

Maude Daly was $2,000 billiard in a game over John Deery of Chicago, Daly scoring 600 to Deery's 406 in 96 innings each.

The Cincinnati Exposition draws 10,000 visitors per day.

White, Brown & Co., Boston dry goods importers, are sued by the United States for defrauding the custom house of $100,000.

Fifteen thousand eight hundred and eighty pounds of bullion, from the Stockton mines, and a ton of pure silver bullion from the Pioche mines, at Salt Lake, were received last week.

Fallings in Baltimore and New York within the last three days will agree between three and four million dollars. The suspended firms are principally engaged in the wholesale grocery business.

Di Scheppa, recently acquitted at Carlisle, Pa., of the murder of Miss Steinmecke, has filed a caveat to the will of the deceased. The Doctor lays claim to Miss Steinmecke's estate under will, which was admitted to probate, with which was admitted to probate.

One of the men summoned for a jury in the Fair trial, now pending in San Francisco, stated to the Court that he had been approached by a person who offered him a $100, if he would secure a place on the jury and vote for the acquittal of the accused. The accused party is under arrest to answer to the charge of contempt.

The Texas cattle fever is prevailing to a considerable extent in McLean county, Illinois. Forty cattle have died from the disease in Lexington within two weeks, and many more are sick. Every case has proved fatal to the animals living from two to six days.

Justice Henry Hoboken, of the New Jersey State Supreme Court, and an eminent jurist, died at Hudson, N.J., aged sixty-four.

In East Cambridge, Mass., during a quarrel between James Cavanaugh and his sister, Bridget Talbot, he beat the latter so brutally that she died during the night.

Despatched from Victoria report matters in Alaska in a very unsatisfactory manner. The place where the country is being settled like a garden in Alaska is in the immediate vicinity of Sitka. Outside, life and property are at the mercy of the Indians.

A New York dispatch says: Col. Whiteley received information of the discovery of an unusually large counterfeiting plot in St. Louis, the principals in which could not well be apprehended, and that the plot would be sent North to be finished. The counterfeiting material was seized at the office of Westcott's Express Company in Brooklyn. It was packed in a box and addressed to B. Still, who had been afraid to take it from the office. Two plates for fifty-dollar bank-notes were found, together with about $20,000 worth of counterfeit notes, which were pronounced the first of the kind ever issued.

The Sundown railroad, air-line from New York to Council Bluffs, that was projected several years ago, is now being built rapidly. A large force is now at work grading the road from Tullyville, Okla., to Fair Wayne. The grading is being done by the Rensselaer, which is also under contract, and work has been commenced. It is expected that the railroad will be ready for the iron from Rochester to Rensselaer about the 1st of January. When completed this will be the shortest route between New York and Omaha.

The War Department has received a dispatch from Gen. Sheridan, dated Duluth, Minn., September 8, saying that Col. Baker, after reaching the mountains of the Yellowstone Valley, was obliged to come back, on account of the surveying engineers deciding to go no further for fear of Indians, and therefore the expedition is a failure.

The Pacific has issued a proclamation abolishing all duties on imports from Japan in Japanese vessels. The rule to hold good so long as Japan imposed no duties on imports from the United States.

A broad.

Pope Pius IX. has finally abandoned the papal states.

A Genoa special says: "The Arbitrators are not all of the same opinion on several points, and will deliver papers expressive of their individual views. Full details of the proceedings will not be made public for some time yet."

The widow of Balta, the lately assassinated President of Peru, sailed from Aspinwall for New York on the 5th inst.

Prince Albrecht, commander in chief of the Austrian army, is dead.

Later Madrid dispatches complain that the Carlists are again becoming troublesome. Fresh outbreaks on the frontier have occurred. Troops have been dispatched to the unoccupied points and precautions have been taken to prevent the insurgents from crossing over from France, concentrating in any considerable number.

A Brussels dispatch says a coal plot near Herisal, on the Meuse, was accidentally flooded while the men were at work. The inundation was so sudden that twenty-five miners were drowned in the pit.

A Paris letter says it is generally conceded on all sides that Theirs' death would result in civil war in France; that no little dispute is caused by the chances of the occurrence of such a contingency.

Dispatches from Rome states that Cardinal Antonelli has a communication from the Papal Nuncio at Vienna, that the Emperor in conference agreed to request the Pope to break from the Jesuits, the Emperor's protest to intercede with Italy in behalf of the foreign religious corporations at Rome.

Edmund About, the popular French writer, has been arrested at Pistrasburg by the Germans. It is presumed that Edmund's pen has wrought the misfortune.

THE HICKMAN COURIER.

ESTABLISHED 1859.

HICKMAN, FULTON CO., KENTUCKY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1872.

VOL. VIII. NO. 37.

THE MISCHIEF MAKER.

"This is all rough work," said a dear little girl, with the fragrance of June in her breath; "of living on rose-leaves and taking my ease."

"I'm just about tired out."

"Dear me!"

"I'm just about tired out."

"You can't raise the wind in this rocky old place," said the breeze, with a dolorous sigh.

"So my quarters I'll change, if it brings me disgrace."

I must have a 'blow-out' or die!

"Dear me!"

Said the breeze, with a dolorous sigh.

So the aspary quits out of her haughty fail.

And in search of adventures goes forth,

Rescuing some brat as to tempests and tempests.

From her friends at the east and the west,

"You'll better keep northward by north."

She found a small spark with the tiniest glow,

And declared it would be a great shame

To let it die out just for want of a flame."

"Ah, me!"

Such a beautiful, terrible flame!

It leaped and it crackled, and still the breeze

With the fragrance of June in her breath;

